RECALL GRAY DAVIS COMMITTEE et al.,
Petitioners,

v.
KEVIN SHELLEY, etc., et al.,
Respondents;
GRAY DAVIS, as Governor, etc.,
Real Party in Interest.

FILED

JUL 18 2003

COURT OF APPEAL - THIRD DISTRICT
DEENA C. FAWCETT

BY _____ Deputy

C044487
Sacramento County

BY THE COURT:

Exhibit D to the Verified Petition for Alternative Writ of Mandate shows the respondent Secretary of State has instructed the respondent local election officials that, in fulfilling their duties to verify the validity of signatures on recall petition sections, the local election officials shall, among other things, report to the Secretary of State "the number of signatures, if any, that you have chosen to verify during the current reporting period [from June 17, 2003, through July 16, 2003]." (Emphasis added.)

When the constitutional and statutory scheme governing a petition to recall a state official is viewed as a whole, it appears that the above-quoted instruction by the Secretary of State is erroneous because a local election official has a duty (1) to examine and to verify the validity of signatures on sections of a recall petition "[u]pon each submission" (Elec. Code, § 11105; see also Elec. Code, §§ 9030, 9031, 11104, subd. (b)), (2) "upon the completion of each examination," to "forthwith" submit to the Secretary of State a certificate "showing the result of the examination" (Elec. Code, § 11107; see also Elec. Code, §§ 9030, 9031), and (3) to report every 30 days to the Secretary of State the "cumulative total of all valid signatures received since the time the recall was initiated and ending five days previously, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays" (Elec. Code, § 11104, subd. (a)(4) (emphasis added)) -- which duty continues during the "current reporting period" (Elec. Code, § 11104, subd. (a)(3)). In other words, contrary to the instruction by the Secretary of State, it appears that local election officials lack the discretion to choose whether or not to verify signatures during the current reporting period.

THIRD APPELLATE DISTRICT

It also appears that, as alleged in the Verified Petition for Alternative Writ of Mandate, the Secretary of State has the duty to maintain a continuous count of verified signatures submitted up to, and during, the current reporting period, and to make that count available to the public upon request. (Cal. Const., art. 11, § 14, subd. (c); Elec. Code, §§ 11104, 11105, 11107, 11108; Gov. Code, §6253.)

Let an alternative writ of mandate issue. Written return to the alternative writ by respondents is to be personally served and filed on or before July 24, 2003. Petitioners' replication, if any, is to be personally served and filed on or before July 28, 2003. No further time will be granted.

The above-captioned case is ordered on calendar for hearing on Thursday, July 31, 2003, at 9:30 a.m., and all counsel are directed to appear. Counsels' attention is directed to the attached memorandum that describes the calendar procedures of this court.
